GARDEN OF TREES is about living together and about growing old together. About getting closer to another human being and sharing your loneliness. To live without judgment and learning to accept both each other and yourself. But how do you do that?

With bittersweet humor and a mix between physical theatre and dance, Finnish choreographer Tanja Eloranta takes on aging and old age.

“Garden of Trees is carried fourth by the small but precise emphasis of movement, giving a sense of saturated life. [...] Once again, Spinn broadens the perception of artistic expressions and our bodies’ abilities.”
